"I studied in Oxford before and then I moved to London. I don't have experience of studying Art in Oxford, but I chose it here because my university major is Fine Art. I am working with watercolours, and there are many books that can help me."

Section 2: Course structure and content

- 20 lessons (15 hours) per week of General English
- 8 lessons (6 hours) per week Art and Design
- + independent project/portfolio work

General English lessons

Your general English lessons will be designed to improve your reading, writing, speaking and listening at a consistent rate. Each week, lessons will focus on a different topic.

Key areas covered include:

Communication skills

- Conversational language skills
- Listening and accents
- Reading and interpretation
- Writing and presenting

Linguistic resources

- Building your vocabulary bank
- Fine tuning your pronunciation
- Interpretation of texts
- Grammar and syntax

Study skills

- Note taking and revision
- Research skills
- Time management and planning
- Dictionary work
- Learner autonomy

Cultural and personal development

- Understanding cultural difference and similarity
- Team work and leadership
- Presenting an argument
- Discussion skills

You will be assigned to your general English class based on your current Kings Level. We have classes right through to Level 8 (Advanced), and you will progress up through the levels as your skills improve and your confidence grows.

Specialised Art and Design lessons

- The art and design lesson content is determined by the student, and is structured around their experience and personal interests. This allows a broad range of students to gain a different, personally tailored experience in art and design.
- Each student fills in a questionnaire on arrival and has a tutorial with their art teacher in their first lesson where they discuss their art background and previous experience as well as their learning goals.
- Students can attend with different levels of experience in art and design, from degree level, or pre-masters students to complete beginners, and can attend for different amounts of time.
- Those who are planning further study in art and design can get portfolio advice and expert guidance on how to prepare effectively for art courses or job applications.
- Students will get an understanding of how art and design is taught in the UK through project work to develop creative thinking.
- Many students simply want to work on their drawing skills, either for themselves or for courses for which they are planning to apply.

Art and design techniques

- Drawing
- Painting
- Sculpture
- Printmaking
- Photography
- Practical 3-D design, for example, modelling, construction and design process including drawing
- Fashion/textiles

Kings Oxford also offers:

- Stop frame animation
- Graphic design
- Illustration

Portfolio development

- Students will be advised on further art and design study in the UK.
- Portfolio development can consist of advice on selecting and presenting work, creating new work for a portfolio and giving a student the means to continue developing their portfolio after their course.
- Students wanting to work on portfolios should bring, if possible, images of any previous work and work in progress that they may wish to include in their portfolio.

Section 3: The Kings Art Studios

- At both Kings Oxford and Kings London, fully-equipped art studios are available for English Plus Art and Design students to use. The Oxford studio is based at the Alfred Street Annexe in central Oxford.
- Both studios are light and spacious, and specially equipped for teaching painting, drawing and modelling.
- The studios provide a great space to meet other students after class to share and develop artistic ideas, and to learn new skills. You may also work on projects in your spare time here.
- Software available includes Photoshop, and InDesign and Illustrator in Oxford.
